Subject: Resignation from OAAC

Hi Lynda,

Happy Easter. Hope the spring is treating you and your family well.

Unfortunately I am going to have to resign from the OAAC. I hate to do it as I enjoy the group and learn so much, but do not feel I can be reliable at this time. With my new role I supervise a team of volunteer advocates on Special Education Advisory Committees (SEACs) across the province - most of the meetings are in the evenings, and when there is a presentation or controversial issue presented I have to be present, as well as when reps aren't able to attend as scheduled. It's played havoc on my schedule, I apologize for missing our last meeting for that reason. Do I need to submit a form or resignation letter?

All the best,
Tanya
