

HTG-24-32

Centennial Brochure Working Group Report

Please find attached the report for the above-noted Working Group.

Recommendation:

That the report from the Centennial Brochure Working Group be endorsed, and that the Centennial Brochure be printed using funds from the 2024 Heritage Oshawa Budget.

Thanks,
Diane Stephen, Chair
Centennial Brochure Working Group

Heritage Oshawa

Scugog Carrying Place

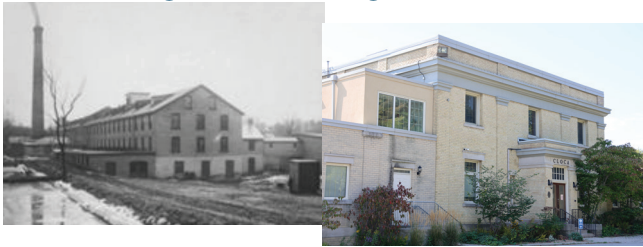

Colonel Sam Drive

A pathway and portage used for migration and commerce by First Nations and now enjoyed by hikers.

Robson Tannery

100 Whiting Avenue, Designated 2019

The Robson Tannery was built in 1899 and is now home to the Central Lake Ontario Conservation Authority (CLOCA).

T. Eaton Company Factory

61 Charles Street

Built in 1903 by the T. Eaton Company as a White Good Factory, it later became the Alger Press and is now home to Ontario Tech University.

If this information is required in an accessible format, please contact Service Oshawa:

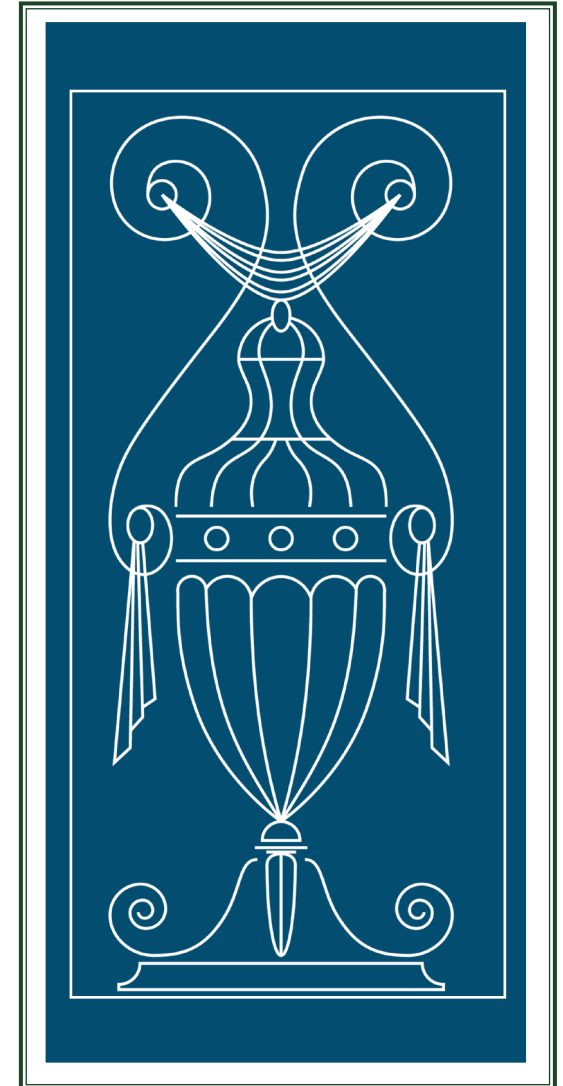

Phone: 905-436-3311

Email: service@oshawa.ca

Connect with us at

Oshawa.ca/Heritage

The Heritage Oshawa logo is inspired by the iron scroll work on the grand central staircase at Parkwood Estate.

Oshawa has changed over the years, but in many ways, the past and our cultural heritage resources enrich our lives and contribute to the economic vitality of the community.

Heritage Oshawa and the City of Oshawa recognize the following images as illustrations of creative adaptive reuse.

Genosha Hotel

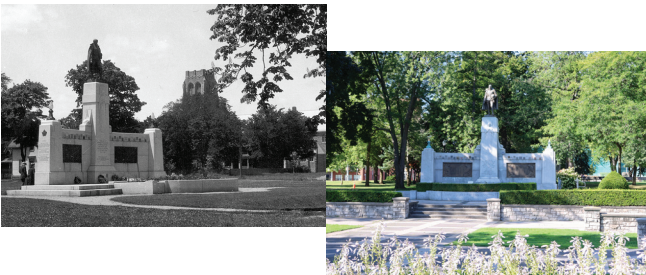

70 King Street East, Designated 2005

The Genosha Hotel opened in 1929 and is now called 70 King, home to several businesses and residences.

Memorial Park

110 Simcoe Street South, Designated 2024

Home to the City of Oshawa War Cenotaph and the McLaughlin Band Shell. Memorial Park is a major landmark in downtown Oshawa and is used as a beautiful public park and place to gather and remember.

Oshawa Executive Airport

1000 Stevenson Road North, Designated 2021

The Oshawa Airport and Flight Training School is now the Oshawa South Field Heritage Conservation District within the Oshawa Airport.

Oshawa House Hotel

66 King Street West, Designated 2020

Built in 1838, the Oshawa House Hotel is now home to businesses and residences.

Regent Theatre

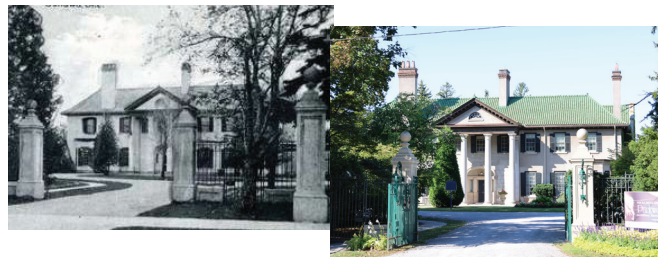

50 King Street East, Designated 2021

Built in 1919 and now used both by the community and the Ontario Tech University as part of its downtown Oshawa Campus.

Parkwood Estate

290 Simcoe Street North, Designated 2000

The home of Col. R. S. McLaughlin was constructed between 1915 to 1917 is a National Historic Site of Canada open to the public, and host to many movie and television productions.

Simcoe St. Church

66 Simcoe Street South, Designated 2002

Simcoe St. Church was constructed in 1867 and welcomed congregations until April 2024. It is also Back Door Mission and Mission United who provide supports for those experiencing homelessness.